Kansas City, Missouri
Kansas City, MO Free pickup you book	Up to 15 items under 500 lb Free	311 (816) 513-1313	Free by appointment Monday to Friday for houses and buildings of 6 units or fewer. Book with the city's online Bulky Scheduler or 311. Items within 3 feet of the curb by 7 a.m., not before 3 p.m. the day before. Refrigerant appliances need notice. Cancel at (816) 513-2855.	Source
Jackson County, MO
Independence, MO Once or twice a year	1 hauler pickup a year, plus cleanup week Ask your hauler; cleanup week is free	See notes	The city has no trash contract, so each home subscribes with a private company, per the RecycleSpot Independence listing: WM (913) 631-3300, Republic (816) 254-1470, Ted's (816) 252-1594, Lies (816) 228-4728 or Constable (816) 204-1192. City Code section 19.05.014 requires every licensed hauler to provide one bulky waste collection a year, as quoted by City Rule Lookup, so ask yours to schedule it. Once a year the Love Where You Live IndeCleanup week adds free bulky disposal and drop-off depots; the 2026 week ran September 27 to October 4, according to MU Extension. Watch the city's announcements for 2027.	Source
Blue Springs, MO Up to your hauler or HOA	Set by your hauler A fee, set by your hauler	See notes	Trash service is private here. The Blue Springs residential disposal page says some haulers will take certain bulky items at the curb for a charge, so call yours before you drag anything out.	Source
Lee's Summit, MO Up to your hauler or HOA	Set by your hauler or HOA Set by your hauler	See notes	For now each hauler or HOA contract sets its own bulky terms. On November 3, 2026, voters decide on a citywide contract that would put quarterly bulky collection in basic service, capped at $30 a month, with changes starting between July 1, 2027 and June 1, 2028 if it passes, per the city's solid waste page.
